

GRADE 2 LISTING DESCRIPTION

SO 3288 BISHOP'S CASTLE C.P. No. 28 CHURCH STREET (east side)
12/35 (The Boar's Head Inn)

GV II

House, now inn. C17 with early- to mid-C19 re-facing and partial under-building, and C20 additions at rear. Timber framed, partly rebuilt and refaced probably in coursed limestone rubble, stuccoed (incised to represent ashlar), and slate roof with catslide over outshut at rear.

5 framed bays. Basement and 2 storeys. Brick ridge stack off-centre to right, lateral integral brick stack off-centre to left at front, and lateral semi-integral brick stack off-centre to left at rear. 5 windows across first floor, late-C19 two-light casements; 4 ground floor 16-pane glazing bar sashes, 3 to left with flush frames; boarded door between first and second windows from right with late-C20 glazed lean-to porch. Later addition to south at rear. Interior: evidence of former jettied first floor to right-hand framed bay (see shaped brackets and bressumer).
